Strategies

In order to positively impact PARCC ELA data, teachers will:

- implement differentiated strategies for writing and reading instruction.
- develop student mindset and develop independent learners
- engage in reading and writing conferences with students that will lead to student goal setting
- minimize pull-outs and ensure students are in the classroom for first instruction

In order to positively impact PARCC Math data, teachers will:

- select, implement, & score high quality tasks.
- select tasks with standards-based learning targets and collect evidence of learning to determine future instruction.
- facilitate meaningful discourse during math instruction.
- select the structure of math class, based on lesson goals, to support the needs of all students.

In order to positively impact disciplinary data instructional staff will:

- provide students direct instruction on emotions, goals, empathy, relationships, and decision-making.
- teach and implement school-wide routines and expectations.
- offer parent workshops on homework, and executive functions needed for school success.
